10. (Confidential - JMM) Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, to say that [REDACTED] OCI, and I would meet with Chairmen Rosenthal and Hamilton, et al of the European and Near East Subcommittees at 10:00 a.m., on Thursday, 13 September to discuss the present situation in Greece. Hackett said they were interested in the significance of recent political changes, the long-term future prospects, the Greek role in the eastern Mediterranean and in NATO, and internal stresses and strains including student activity.

11. (Confidential - JMM) Called Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee of House Armed Services Committee, to say Bill Colby would be glad to meet with him at his convenience to discuss a number of pending items including NSCIDs, SAT, reorganization of ONE, etc. Nedzi appreciated the offer and said he would like to discuss these matters before the full Subcommittee but the Subcommittee was completely preoccupied for the rest of this week with preparation of their report on Watergate, etc. He said he would call next week when they could find time to schedule this. He added that at present he is particularly interested in hearing our plans for ONE and the status of the SAT matter.
